Song Title: On Your Own

Verse I

So now you're on your own
As you're shaking off the cold
Could you ever listen
To the sounds of what's been missing
Oh now you're on your own
With nothing but a bone
Oh now you're on your own

Chorus

And here I'm a laughing
And I can't sit still
Am I out of my mind
As I'm looking down and my shoes are untied

Tag

But now its time to make my move
To make my move
To feel so smooth
To make my move

Verse II

And so the match is lit again
But where has the spark been
Never do you realize
What the stakes are
Meant to are meant to, meant to
Are meant to drive the heart

Chorus

And here I'm a laughing

And I can't sit still

Am I out of my mind

As I'm looking down and my shoes are untied

Tag

But now its time to make my move

To make my move

To feel so smooth

To make my move
