Song Title: Russian Roulette

Verse 1:

Why should I fall apart when I'm trying to stay alive
I've been waiting my whole life, to have all which is uncontrived
Is it me or do you agree, the world's just playing jeopardy
Look around it's the same old sound, whispers whose next in town

Chorus:

And I'm screaming cause no one's listening
To our children whose eyes are watching
Oh we're defining what's worth living
Should be deceiving or should we be giving
Oh I'm begging for a little

Lovemaking, Earth Shaking
Won't you please

Verse 11:

So here we are playing Russian roulette just to fill the wallet
Will it take another attack for us to realize the impact
Watching TV simply shows all this misery
I know my own past and so finally at last

Chorus:

And I'm screaming cause no one's listening
To our children whose eyes are watching
Oh we're defining what's worth living
Should be deceiving or should we be giving
Oh I'm begging for a little
